

WORLD OF RADIO #964, produced Nov 4, 1998 by Glenn Hauser

- *Unexpected new time for us on WWCR, Sat 1300 on 5070; already on our website by Friday
- *VOA Communications World did not appear Sat 1245 on 15685
- *Thanks to R. EuroGeek for electronic QSL; will be on several times before next October and replacing R. St. Helena Day
- *RadioMemphis has started via WRN; maybe shortwave later
- *C-SPAN giving up own international relays, just WRN and BBC
- *UN Radio's new relays via Germany, VOA and BBC awaiting Assembly approval
- *V. of Turkey heard with UN program in English already
- *Padula resuming Electronic DX Press
- *Budapest now listed on 11 meter band, maybe wish-list for now
- *Prague continues Saturday concert, crystal-clear on 13m; times it is used
- *Ukraine heard on 13m in morning English
- *R. Latvia Int'l heard in English
- *R. Baltic Waves, surrogate for Belarus from Lithuania, already testing on 48m
- *R. Sweden clashes with French broadcast
- *Strange that RVI is not including news on Bonaire relay
- *RTBF, Belgium, plans resuming SW to Africa in January
- *Merlin Network One stops QSLing Nov 27 except for special events; 20, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London WC2A 3ES
- *BBC Remembrance Day live special from Cenotaph, Sunday Nov 8 1030
- *Surrogate services by US for Iraq, Iran, started Oct 30; times, frequencies and sites for R. Free Iraq, RFE/RL Farsi service; early monitoring reports; Iraq and Iran complain to Czechs
- *You're listening to America's non-scripted, non-governmental, non-religious, non-corporate and non-commercial DX program, WOR 964, wghauser@hotmail.com or P O Box 1684, Enid OK 73702 USA; see our website <https://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio>
- *Standard disclaimer
- *New frequency for Iran in English
- *Afghanistan off-frequency on 60 meters including English
- *Tashkent's winter frequencies in English
- *Bangladesh English service heard in Ontario
- *Vietnam abandons out-of-band frequency, jams KWHR/RFA
- *DZMM maritime relay in Philippines heard on 17 MHz band
- *RNZI still using 25m instead of 16m late at night
- *Libya in English and French at another time
- *Star Radio, Liberia, allowed to resume internet news
- *R. Veritas, Liberia, still on weird out-of-band frequency
- *RFPI was incomunicado when lightning burnt out modems, unable to get E-mail, Pacifica News or WOR, but now back
- *RFPI resumes Spanish in mornings
- *TIAWR Wavescan RKI special time UT Nov 9
- *Report confirms R. Marti a "mecca of shoddy reporting"
- *CNN discussing merging news operation with CBS-TV, others

*More special MW DX tests, Nov 9 KLCK, Nov 16 KLOE
*RCI finally has new versions of jingles, replacing tiresome old ones
*Radio Shack closing out DX-390 at new low price; DX-398 also on sale
*National Geographic selling multi-band/SW radio with crank, rechargeable batteries; 1-888-225-5647
*New 1999 Passport to World Band Radio struck out five times in a row with wrong info or omissions
*New newsgroup: alt.dx.tropical
*Propagation outlook from Boulder, Nov 2 - flux peak 120
*CIA has new website for kids: <http://www.odci.gov/cia/ciakids>
*That's WOR 964; Glenn Hauser at wghauser@hotmail.com always inviting your input, and tune in again next week ###